MEMORANDUM FOR: HENRY A. KISSINGER

FROM: BRENT SCOWCROFT

SUBJECT: Proposed New Membership of the PFIAB

At Tab A is the White House personnel office's draft memo to the President proposing new members for the PFIAB. The President had earlier indicated his wish to review the membership and suggested the names of Les Arends, Bob Six (Continental Air Lines), and General John C. Meyer (Air Force, Retired). Apart from these names, the President provided no other thoughts except that it might be desirable to have a representative of labor, business and the Rockefeller Commission. The personnel office has added the suggestion that there be a member with a diplomatic background, a woman, a prominent Democrat and perhaps a media representative. The personnel office also proposes a limit of fifteen members. The slate proposed is as follows:
